Lewis Accepts Bid To Renew Contract Talks

First Real Development This Year

Pittsburgh, Jan. 26—(AP)—John L. Lewis agreed to renew contract negotiations today at invitation of the strike-plagued soft coal industry.

It is the first concrete development of the year toward ending the frequent coal walk-outs which have pestered the nation for months and cut fuel stockpiles to the danger point. More than 88,000 miners now are idle in a no contract no work strike in six important bituminous producing states. Unemployment in allied industries like steel mills and railroads has reached 18,000.

To Meet Feb. 1

Four hours after the coal industry put out its invitation for contract talks, Lewis said he will meet northern and western operators in Washington on Wednesday, February 1.

That's the hour and date the United Mine Workers chief must reply in Washington Federal district court to a National Labor Relations Board petition for injunction against Lewis' three-day work week.

Lewis advised the operators he is willing to resume negotiations "in good faith, without stipulation, qualification or commitment."

But the operators made no concessions. They stand firm on the same proposals made to the UMW in fruitless sessions dating back to May 25, 1949.

They had asked Lewis for a prompt reply to their contract talk offer so miners can go back to work and ease coal shortages.

Lewis didn't receive the offer immediately but shot back this wire: "Newspapers chronicle that you now wish to negotiate. If this be true, I advise that representatives of the United Mine Workers of America will meet with representatives of your industry group at the Statler Hotel, Washington, D.C., at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, Feb. 1, to negotiate in good faith, without stipulation, qualification or commitment."

Resumption of bargaining could have an effect on the NLRB suit for a court injunction against Lewis on charges of unfair labor practices.

Robert N. Denham, NLRB general counsel who filed the action, heard of the Lewis move and commented: "If Lewis and the operators can sit down and work out a legal agreement, nobody will support 'em faster than I will."

There was no immediate reaction from coal operators.

In Washington, President Truman was reported to be "working as hard as he can" on the current soft coal strike and hoping "for the best."

Ingrid Bergman Files Suit For Divorce In Mexico

Hollywood, Jan. 26—(AP)—The long-expected divorce action of Ingrid Bergman against Dr. Peter Lindstrom is being filed in Mexico, her lawyer said today.

The likely place seems to be Juarez, Chihuahua State, just over the border from El Paso, Tex. Attorneys of the fourth district court there said late today however, the action had not been filed.

Nevertheless, Miss Bergman's Hollywood attorney, Greg Bautzer, said "it is my understanding that the papers have been filed or will be within a few hours."

Her El Paso attorney, William Coker, of the firm of Coker and Arturo Gomez-Travino, said "I am under definite instructions not to make any public statement." He referred questions to Bautzer.

Attorneys for Miss Bergman in Rome, Italy, where her romance with Italian film director Roberto Rossellini has flourished, previously disclosed that the divorce suit would be filed in Mexico.

Dr. Lindstrom, silent since the Bergman-Rossellini love affair began last spring, has been represented by New York Attorney Lawrence Brinn in negotiations with Bautzer for a property settlement.

Man Wins $17,500 Damage Judgment

St. Louis, Jan. 26—(AP)—Francis W. Holm of Independence, Mo., won a $17,500 damage judgment today in federal court here for injuries suffered in an accident near Canton, Mo., 13 months ago.

The judgment was against Fred R. McKenzie of Galesburg, Ill., a contractor and operator of a sand and gravel business.

Holm, 51, representative of an outdoor advertising firm, claimed he suffered permanent injuries when his car collided with one of McKenzie's trucks as it turned into his path. He asked for $50,000 damages.

McKenzie testified Holm was driving at a high rate of speed and that the brakes of his car were faulty.

Stinging Cold Front Moves Toward East

By The Associated Press

A stinging summer-to-winter cold front rolled deep into the Midwest Thursday. Gales and drenching rains accompanying the change damaged property and raised new flood threats.

The winter's fourth cold wave in southern California struck another blow at that state's citrus crop, but summerlike temperatures prevailed in the east.

The weather was on a freak binge that produced these contrasts: It was 14 degrees colder in Los Angeles than in Toronto. Los Angeles had an overnight low of 36 while it never dipped under 50 in the Canadian city.

Guyton, Okla., in the northwest part of the state, recorded 2 degrees, while Idaho, Okla., in the southeast section sweltered in 80 degrees.

Mercury thermometers froze in Sanish, N. D., when the temperature dropped to -46. But in Washington, D. C., where it was 23 degrees warmer at 77, noon-day strollers were hatless and coatless.

In Chicago, where the mercury hit an all-time high January reading of 67 Wednesday, a season's low of zero was forecast for Thursday night.

The coldest weather of the season gripped the Dakotas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas.

But more heat records were broken in the east and southeast. The mercury shot up to 70.5 at 3 p.m. (EST) in New York, marking the hottest January weather in the city's history.

The Rockefeller Center ice skating rink had to be shut down because the sun melted the ice.

The temperature hit an all-time January high of 79 in Baltimore. Japanese beetle, a June-to-August problem, appeared near Frederick, Md.

Boston had an all-time December-January-February high of 72 degrees at 2 p.m., a sharp drop to the upper 30's was forecast.

Atlanta, Ga., recorded a 77, five degrees warmer than the previous record for the date.

At Philadelphia where the temperature climbed to an all-time January high of 73.2, girls ditched their fur coats and went sunbathing on roof tops.

Cooler weather was in prospect for most of the east Friday.

Groundhogs, turtles and snakes came out of hibernation in a Philadelphia zoo. Forsythias, dandelions and jasmine were blooming all over eastern Pennsylvania. Bees swarmed around a honeysuckle bush in full bloom in the Towson, Md., court-house square. Chestnut vendors tended their stands in shirt sleeves in Newark, N. J.

NU Employee Taken By U.S. Agents In Income Tax 'Fix'

Chicago, Jan. 26—(AP)—A Northwestern university employee, seized by treasury agents, was charged today with mail fraud in connection with an income tax "fix" reported by a cigar salesman.

John P. O'Malley, 32, a storeroom worker in Northwestern's chemistry department, was seized last night by a T-man who wore a red necktie and a cheek bandage.

O'Malley pleaded innocent when arraigned before United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker. He was released on $5,000 bond.

Daniel P. Ward, assistant U. S. attorney, said O'Malley had laid and partly completed an intricate scheme to obtain $3,000 from William A. Schmuckebier, of suburban Barrington.

The plot included code words and phrases, such as calling money "cigars," and false names and false bandages and scars for disguise.

Treasury agents who seized O'Malley used the disguises in taking him at an alleged pay-off rendezvous at a railroad station.

Agents said O'Malley himself was disguised—using collodion to draw one side of his face tightly in a fake scar.

BURGLARS TAKE $2,000 FROM MELLOTT OFFICE

Mellott, Ind., Jan. 26—(AP)—A $2,000 burglary was reported today by the Hopkins Syndicate office here.

Frank Kromm, office manager, told police that burglars apparently had broken into the office during the night, opened a safe and fled with $2,000 in cash and checks.

The syndicate distributes a health column written by Dr. George W. Crane.

Steelworkers Union Says Industry 'Profit Grabbing'

Washington, Jan. 26—(AP)—The CIO Steelworkers union today charged the steel industry with profit grabbing unjustified by labor pension costs—a "public be damned" attitude.

Otis Brubaker of Pittsburgh, the union's research director, told congress that last month's $4 a ton raise was far in excess of any demonstrable cost increases. He said it was supported by industry "misrepresentations."

Steel firm executives declared yesterday, on the other hand, that the increase is due to higher costs, mainly that of new pension and insurance programs which workers got after last fall's strike.

Some contended the new prices still are too low for the industry's health.

Brubaker, testifying before the Senate-House economic committee, which first heard the industry's story, declared the companies were being "outrageously higher profits" and that they could have met the new costs of the welfare program without any increase in prices.

"We are tired of being a public whipping boy for this industry," the witness said.

Brubaker and Rep. Rich (R-Pa.) clashed at one point during the hearing.

"You want to run the steel companies," Rich shouted. "Why don't you go out and build a steel company?"

And a moment later Rich said: "You're more interested in publicity than in giving us facts."

To this Brubaker replied: "I will say that we have more hard facts in this statement—and I have pointed a 65-page document he had been reading—than in all the statements you've had so far," from the steel companies.

At another point Rich asked, "Do you favor the government taking over the steel industry?"

"We have never proposed that," congressmen said Brubaker.

Brubaker contended that the industry's action may mean higher prices for many steel products and might endanger economic stability.

Indonesian Troops Shoot It Out With Rebels In Capital

Jakarta, Java, U. S. I., Jan. 26—(AP)—Indonesian federal troops, seeking to crush a west Java rebel movement, shot it out with an armed band of deserters from Dutch service in downtown Jakarta today and hauled off two truckloads of prisoners.

Seven persons were killed and a number wounded, it was announced.

A witness said five of the dead were federal soldiers; two were members of the rebel band.

Armored patrols rumbled through the main thoroughfares tonight. The curfew was advanced three hours, from 1 a.m. to 10 p.m. Dozens of sentries stood guard at the flood-lit federal army headquarters behind newly erected sandbag fortifications and barbed wire.

The clash came as soldiers of this month-old rebellion combed the capital for Indonesian deserters from the immobilized Royal Netherlands Indies army (RNIL) suspected of throwing in with the guerrilla force of a tough former Dutch captain, R. P. P. "Turk" Westerling.

Mobile police officers reported the action was set off by an attack of the rebel band on a police post in the shopping district.

Westerling is a 30-year old commando veteran who opposes republican pressure for dissolving the west Java state, which was carved by the Dutch from the old Indonesian republic, now just a sister state in the U. S. I.

He also demands that his guerrillas be recognized as the official force for keeping order in west Java, contending the republican-officered federal army is too green for the job.

Delavan, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—Winds up to 60 miles an hour, accompanied by heavy rain, damaged buildings on at least four farms in the Delavan area late yesterday. In addition to leveling buildings, the winds uprooted many fruit trees.

Washington, Jan. 26—(AP)—The civil service commission today announced the following applicants for the postmaster in Elgin, Ill.: Elgin, Ill.: Walter I. Brown, Richard J. Schnell, Franz J. Romeis, Vernon J. Hannan, John J. James, R. Roland G. Schlager, Reuben H. Stern, Alvin Earl Lehman, Edward L. Sensor.

Harvard, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—A heavy windstorm damaged several buildings and at least one home in the Harvard-Chemung area about 1 p.m. yesterday. No injuries were reported.

The wind tore the roof from the Harvard implement company's new building. The roof blew against the side of the nearby home of Daniel Horder, damaging the house and an automobile.

Several barns in the area were reported damaged.

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—It was 12 above today and court attaches had a little trouble keeping their minds on the subject at hand. Sam Shilo, 28, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal sale of fireworks last July and was assessed $30 fine and costs by County Judge Fred J. Kulberg. He had been at liberty on $50 bond since his arrest in July, but the wheels of justice sometimes grind slowly.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—Commencement crowds used to consist mainly of proud parents of the graduates but James Millikin university ceremonies today attracted a young turnout.

The reason: Of the 108 midyear graduates, 86 were war veterans. The onlookers included a large number of graduates' wives, husbands and babies.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—The county court was attempting today to decide whether a husband or a wife died first in a murder and a suicide shooting.

Upon the decision of Judge Gus T. Greenias depends whether $3,000 in insurance benefits will be paid to the family of Homer R. Andrews, 39, or of his wife, Charlotte, 29.

Andrews shot his wife and himself in April, 1949, near Aurora after a quarrel. They had no children. A safe deposit box in Decatur, where they formerly lived, yielded a $2,000 insurance policy with the wife as beneficiary and a $1,000 with the husband as beneficiary.

A deputy sheriff who witnessed the shootings told the court he believes Mrs. Andrews survived her husband. He said he felt her pulse and her heart was beating after her husband had expired.

Attorneys for heirs to Andrews' estate challenged the qualifications of the officer to give testimony which the lawyers contended was medical.

If the husband died first, the $2,000 policy on his life would be payable to his wife's estate. If she died first, the $1,000 policy on her life would go to the husband's estate.

Believes Chinese Commies Will Free 2 Americans Soon

Kobe, Japan, Jan. 26—(AP)—A U. S. consular official just out of Red China expressed belief today that communists eventually would free two American servicemen they have held for 15 months.

"When Britain has set up effective relations with Red China, I think we will get Bender and Smith out," said Consul General Carl O. Hawthorne of San Francisco. He came here aboard the freighter Flying Arrow after closing the consulate at Tsingtao.

The prisoners are marine M. Sgt. Charles C. Bender of Cincinnati and navy Chief Electrician William C. Smith of Long Beach, Calif. They have been in Red hands since their plane was forced down Oct. 19, 1948. They were attached to the American naval base which operated at Tsingtao at that time.

Capt. David Jones of the Flying Arrow attempted to negotiate release of Smith and Bender when his ship put into Tsingtao after being blocked by nationalist shellfire outside Shanghai.

West Protests Soviet 'Slowdown' Blockade

Wallace Says He Did Not Export Uranium

Washington, Jan. 26—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace today denounced implications that "as a wartime vice president I could not be trusted with certain confidential information regarding the atom bomb."

Testifying at his own request before the House un-American activities committee, Wallace went under oath that he was "neither responsible nor aware" of uranium shipments to Russia During World War II.

Uranium is a basic ingredient in A-Bombs.

"In short, and in fact, I had absolutely nothing to do with any of these uranium export licenses," he said.

The former vice president testified that as a top policy maker he knew about the government's super-secret atomic research, and helped shape the decision in mid 1941 to intensify this country's efforts to beat the Germans in the race for atomic weapons.

"Knowing as we did that the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute had been working on an atomic project since 1939, we were determined that the Germans should not make the first bomb," he said.

But Wallace said he never violated the secrecy surrounding American A-Bomb development, and he told the committee:

"I was never anything but faithful to the trust that had been placed with me."

Wallace held his poise unruffled under a barrage of questions by committee members. These brought out:

1. A denial of a New York Times story, published in September, 1945, that Wallace proposed sharing the Atom Bomb with Russia at a cabinet meeting on Sept. 21, 1945. Wallace said he agreed with Secretary of War Stimson that there should be some scientific exchange, but argued against giving any nation any of the know-how or construction details of the Atom Bomb.

2. An acknowledgement that Wallace knows Boris Pregel, president of a New York firm which arranged for two shipments of Canadian uranium compounds to Russia in the spring of 1943. But Wallace said he never met Pregel until Dec. 27, 1943.

3. The state department announced that all eight of the European arms agreements, including the British, will be signed here tomorrow in a ceremony in which Secretary Acheson will represent the American government.

4. The department also announced that President Truman will formally approve tomorrow the plan for an integrated defense of the North Atlantic area and issue an executive order making it effective as a basis for carrying out the arms program.

General MacArthur Celebrates 70th Birthday In Tokyo

Tokyo, Jan. 26—(AP)—With little ceremony, General Douglas MacArthur observed his 70th birthday today.

Brisk and in good health, the commander of the occupation of this nation he did much to defeat received congratulations from well-wishers who crowded his anteroom.

Sir Alvary Gascoigne, head of the British mission, extended the greetings of the diplomatic set. Birthday remembrances included flowers from the emperor and Premier Shigeru Yoshida. The Philippines awarded him its highest decoration, the Legion of Honor Medal.

As the general left his office at luncheon, several hundred Japanese urchins on the sidewalk sang "Happy Birthday" and waved homemade American flags.

COON HUNTER DIES AFTER NIGHT'S TRAMP

Mount Vernon, Ill., Jan. 26—(AP)—A coon hunter collapsed and died today of apparent exhaustion after a night of tramping in a rainstorm.

He was William J. Browder, 61, a plant watchman. He and his son-in-law, Virgil Myers, got separated from two other hunters in rugged country east of here. They were caught in a rainstorm, became lost and their movements were cut off by two overflying streams.

Early today they reached a farm house where Browder died.

Defense Pictures Coplon As Kitten-Like Innocent

New York, Jan. 26—(AP)—The defense pictured Judith Coplon today as a kitten-like innocent and Valentin A. Gubitchev as a love-craved straying husband.

But the government prosecutor said he would prove that they were plotting to spy, and not carrying on an illicit romance, when they dodged FBI pursuers and kept furtive trysts in the streets of New York.

Three lawyers made opening addresses to the jury—Raymond P. Wheatly, special assistant to the U. S. attorney general; Archibald Palmer for Miss Coplon, and Abraham L. Pomerantz for the Russian engineer, Gubitchev.

The defendants are charged in a four-count indictment with conspiring to steal U. S. defense secrets for the Russians.

Their lawyers gave widely differing interpretations of what happened last March 4, when Gubitchev was arrested by FBI agents who chased them—sometimes losing the trail—almost the length of Manhattan.

Gubitchev acted strangely, his lawyer said, because he was "a crazy man wanting desperately to be with a woman"—and afraid his wife would find out what he was up to.

Pomerantz also told the jury of six men and six women:

"You will not find Mr. Gubitchev ever received a single piece of paper from Miss Coplon that related to the U. S. A. or any department."

Palmer likewise contended it was love rather than espionage that brought Miss Coplon up from Washington to meet the Russian when she worked for the Justice department and he for the United Nations.

But he said the 28-year-old Brunette was shocked and her love cooled when she learned that Gubitchev was married.

"We'll show," Palmer went on, "that she was friendly with everybody. Five feet in height, always smiling, she is the little kitten type. She never took from the files of the FBI or any other government agency anything she had no right to take. This girl is as innocent of the intent to wrong the United States as anyone in this courtroom."

Demands Restrictions Be Lifted

Berlin, Jan. 26—(AP)—The Western allies protested sharply to the Russians tonight over Soviet interference with truck traffic between Berlin and west Germany and demanded immediate removal "of these abnormal restrictions."

The United States, British and French commanders in Berlin declared in a note to the Soviet commandant, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov, that "it is no longer possible to avoid the conclusion that these incidents are a calculated attempt to restrict the normal movement of persons and goods between Berlin and the western zones."

Soviet hindrance of the truck traffic at the Helmstedt checkpoint, 100 miles west of Berlin, could not be interpreted in any other way, they said.

Tighten 'Baby Blockade'

The protest came as the Russian guards at Helmstedt appeared to be tightening a "baby blockade" to the passage of only one truck every 15 minutes. The Russians have used all sorts of excuses in their inspection of the trucks to cut the flow of supplies to West Berlin.

John J. McCloy, U. S. high commissioner for Germany, is reported to regard the increasing Russian restrictions on Berlin traffic as the beginning of a creeping blockade.

He is now in the United States for consultations.

The western note, drawn up in a three-hour meeting of the three commandants, was delivered tonight to the Karlsruher headquarters of Kotikov. It virtually charged blockade tactics.

Other Protest Ignored

A previous protest, lodged when the Russians started molesting traffic a week ago, has been ignored. The Russian conduct has violated "the spirit and the letter" of the Big Four foreign ministers' decisions at Paris to normalize Berlin after the Soviet blockade was lifted last year, the new note said.

An allied official said the commanders had speculated on the idea that the Russians were "throwing their weight around" to see how far they could go. He added that the commanders would continue to protest until they got some satisfaction from the Russians.

The Soviet interference with traffic started after American authorities seized a largely vacant building of the Soviet-controlled railway system in the U. S. sector of Berlin last week for office space for the West Berlin government. The seizure order was issued by the property control section through what is called the blunder of a subordinate employee. The building was returned to the Russians four days later.

Teller Surrenders For Questioning About Shortage

Chicago, Jan. 26—(AP)—Wilbert Schuemann, 49, a relief teller at a bank in suburban Evanston, surrendered to the state's attorney's office today for questioning about a reported $20,000 shortage in bank accounts.

No charge was placed against him. He was accompanied by his lawyer.

Officials of the State bank and Trust company of Evanston said in a statement that its auditors found the shortage Friday and that it is covered by insurance.

Alex Napoli, assistant state's attorney, summoned Schuemann for questioning, after a brief investigation.

CITIES MIGHT HALT SEX CRIMES BY ADDING MORE PATROLMEN

No crimes are more horrifying than sex assaults and murders. Yet it's plain from accounts in the press these days that we aren't making enough headway against them. From more than a few cities come reports that women are afraid to venture forth onto the streets alone at night. Too often the offenders who viciously strike them down are not caught and punished.

The experts say many of the nation's growing cities simply don't have adequate police forces to protect their citizens. In recent decades communities have been spreading widely, multiplying streets in sprawling confusion. These streets should be patrolled, but rare is the big city with sufficient policemen to do the job.

Philadelphia experimented with a stepped-up force in areas prowled by sex offenders and other criminals. Crime rates in those zones promptly dropped. Unfortunately the city wasn't able to boost permanently the number of policemen stationed in danger spots.

That's the fix most of the troubled communities are in. They need many more policemen but can't afford them. If heavier protection is a prime immediate answer, then cities would seem to have a choice either of imposing extra taxes or paring other services. Certainly safeguards against bodily attack are more fundamental than some of the other jobs the cities do.

Though it crops up in all parts of the country, the problem of sex crime is primarily local. Federal authorities can't intervene in preventive or enforcement work within cities. Still the government can do something to check these offenses when the perpetrators travel across state lines.

Congress now has before it a bill by Representative Chelf, Kentucky Democrat, which would empower the federal government to seize sex criminals who cross state borders and imprison them for 10 to 20 years. Chelf claims the proposal has wide support.

Another place where federal authority can have useful effect is in postal regulations governing the distribution of sex publications through the mails. There's no excuse whatsoever for letting such "literature" get spread around. Crime experts blame this material for many offenses.

If the Justice Department rates the Chelf bill useful and workable, it ought to pass. Likewise, postal rules should be tightened or better enforced. Anything more government can do to check the interstate movement of sex criminals should be done. But in the end it is the cities which must stamp out these brutal attacks.

Weil's Disease Likely In People Working Near Rats

BY EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Probably most readers of this column have never heard of Weil's disease and even fewer of spirochetemia, which is one of its other names. In spite of this fact, Weil's disease, while not too common, is not exactly rare and is quite possibly a problem of increasing health importance to residents of many parts of the world.

The likelihood of Weil's disease in human beings is dependent on how closely they are associated with rats. Most cases reported in the United States have been in persons whose occupations demanded their working in wet places where rats were common. Sewer workers, tunnel diggers, swimmers in contaminated water, and workers in wet mines have been particularly prone to contract this infection.

Jaundice Develops
Now the symptoms of Weil's disease are at first very much like those of several other infections. There is likely to be a sudden chill, followed by fever. As the disease progresses, jaundice is likely to develop. The jaundice in fact may give the clue to the cause of the symptoms.

The diagnosis is not easy during the early stages of the disease. The germ responsible is circulated in the blood and can sometimes be identified under the microscope or by inoculating a laboratory animal and reproducing the disease. A little later the spirochete responsible disappears from the blood. By the third week and later this organism has produced a reaction in the blood which can be shown by one or more laboratory tests.

Treatment is not particularly satisfactory although several methods have been tried. For this reason it is particularly important to prevent Weil's disease. Like any disorder carried by rats, the main line of attack has to be against these animals. Poisons, trapping, and all the other methods which are used to kill rats are useful. Avoid exposure to damp surfaces which may have been contaminated with rats is advised when possible.

There is always a danger that a disease like this may become more virulent or that rats will increase in number and come increasingly in contact with human beings. Weil's disease is only one of several reasons why man should wage an incessant war against rats, which are one of our greatest enemies in the race for survival.

The Woman Pays?

Lamb Chop Manner

There's delightful eating ahead when juicy broiled loin lamb chops are joined with hot pineapple rings. Green peas topped with cauliflower flowers help to round out this desirable meal.

One way of cutting kitchen time is cooking a large part or all of the main fare of the meal in the same utensil. Casseroles and stews follow this pattern, but not to be overlooked are the simple broiler meals.

One tempting, grilled example combines lamb chops and pineapple rings with green peas and cauliflower. The pineapple and cooked cauliflower are placed on the rack in the broiler pan, brushed with fat and browned during the last of cooking time.

Other interesting lamb chop dinners may include practically any cooked vegetable such as carrots, broccoli, lima or green beans or potato slices. Tomato, peach, apricot or banana halves and other fruits may be broiled along with the chops to attractively garnish the serving platter.

Shoulder Chops
Loin, rib or the shoulder cut arm and blade chops are suitable for broiling. The shoulder cut chops are just as savory as the more familiar chops, yet less well known, therefore, a thrifty buy. All chops should be cut at least 1/4 of an inch thick for broiling—thinner chops may be pan-broiled.

In preparing, remove the fell—the thin paper covering on lamb—and place the chops on the broiler rack 2 to 3 inches from the heat, depending on the thickness. When broiled on one side, season with salt and pepper, then turn the chops and brown them on the other side. Only the one turning is necessary. For 1-inch chops allow from 12 to 15 minutes broiling time. For 2-inch chops, 22 to 25 minutes. Remove the chops to a heated platter and serve them immediately. Lamb should be served hot or cold, never lukewarm.

Panbroiling
For panbroiling, the chops are placed in a heavy frying-pan and cooked over low heat. No water or fat is added, the pan is left uncovered. The chops need to be turned occasionally so that the meat will be evenly cooked and the fat should be poured off as it accumulates. When cooked—10 to 12 minutes—the chops are seasoned and served immediately.

PASSAVANT MAKES CONTRIBUTIONS TO MARCH OF DIMES

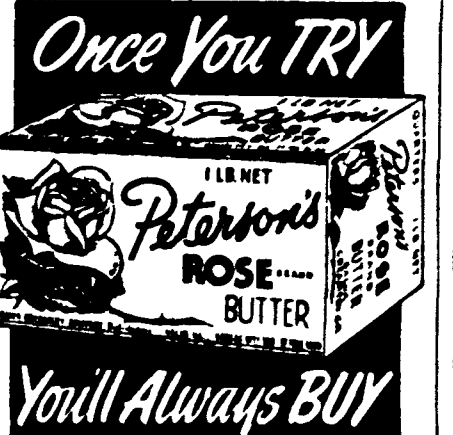

Passavant Memorial hospital made a generous contribution to the March of Dimes. The contributors were the housekeeping department, laundry, central supply, dietary department, nurse aides, and students. Notices were posted early in the week that no one was to have a coke or candy bar on Friday, January 20th. The response indicated that there may have been many other sacrifices beside sweets.

In addition each student organization contributed $5 from its class fund.

Coal Stocks Depleted; C. Of C. Wires Officials

The Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, acting in behalf of coal dealers and coal consumers of this area, has surveyed the supply on hand in the community. Their survey indicated that there was less than one day's supply of coal if cold weather should set in.

Of the 11 coal dealers interviewed, stocks on hand ranged from none to 160 tons. No dealers reported more than 100 tons of coal on hand and most dealers reported only approximately one half day's supply.

In most cases dealers are delivering only small lots of coal to their customers when they can.

Institutions surveyed reported that they are in fairly good shape at the present time with one exception. One hospital reported only three day's supply on hand with no idea when more would be coming. This information was conveyed by

First-Aid For Big Feet

BY HAL BOYLE

New York.—(P)—It is no joke having feet big enough to stamp out forest fires.

In pre-war days men with large kickers had real trouble finding shoes to fit them. They got a little weary of being told, "why don't you wear suitcases?" And they also got tired of paying $40 to $75 for custom built shoes—as few stores stocked anything beyond size 11 or 12.

Bernie Lazarus became aware of this problem while selling shoes to the army during the war. He discovered about 3 per cent of the troops had extra size feet.

So Bernie and two friends launched the King-Size Shoe company in Brockton, Mass. They guaranteed to fit any gent with a flapper between sizes 10 and 16.

The firm had 1,000 customers at the end of the year. By the close of 1949 it had 25,000 customers and better than a $250,000 turnover.

Among the customers are a museum curator, a Broadway producer, Hollywood stars, and at least one governor.

"The governor is big Jim Folsom of Alabama," said Lazarus. "But I can't tell you the names of the Hollywood actors. They want to keep it a secret."

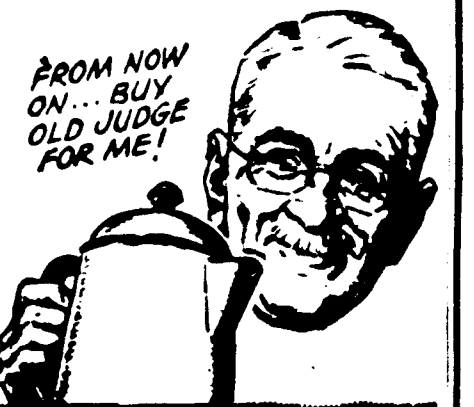

He has found that many men are extremely sensitive about their oversize feet. In self-conscious letters they refer to them as "my tender white kickers," "my teenie-weenies," or "my little tootsies."

Lazarus—he's a size 11½ himself—has found in a specialty business it is commercially impracticable to stock shoes larger than size 16. But as a matter of sentiment he will try to shoe men with even "super-size" feet.

"The only man I wasn't able to do anything for was a famous wrestler," Bernie smiled. "He had a foot as wide as a table."

He says there appears to be no direct connection between big feet and a man's own physical size, race or occupation. So far as he knows only one of his customers is a detective.

One hard-to-fit customer in the Philippines, fearful the firm would not be in business long, ordered 50 pairs of shoes at one clip. Another wired to have his pair sent special delivery, "as I can't get married until they get here."

Miner's Pain Gone, Now Stands Erect and Works Full Time

Mr. Wm. Walker, 1513 So. Glenwood Ave., Springfield, Gets Relief After 20 Years Suffering

"I am 70 years of age and have been a miner most of my life. For over 20 years I have been troubled with rheumatism and arthritis so badly that I could hardly sleep at night. I had to just roll out of bed and was frequently unable to work because of the pain in my shoulders and legs. There were times at the end of the day when the boys had to help me on with my coat because I was so stiff. I have tried many medicines but none seemed to help me at all. One evening I read an advertisement for Rentox and decided to try it out. Before finishing the first bottle I noticed that the pain was less and now I have no pain at all. When coming out of the mines I would always be bent over but now I can walk erect and the boys often yell at me saying I am picking up and look much better. A good many of them are taking Rentox and enjoying great relief. I think Rentox is a wonderful medicine and I would not be without it. I have recommended it to a lot of my friends and would recommend it to anyone who is suffering as I have."

QUICK ACTION

This great medicine containing 26 splendid ingredients goes to work quickly to relieve the system of contaminating poisons which may have been causing days, weeks, even months of suffering. Dizziness, loss of pep and biliousness quickly relieved. Get on the road to better health and happy living, buy a bottle of Rentox at your local druggists today. Insist upon genuine Rentox, don't be "switched" to another product.

Golden Wedding Celebration For N. J. Kirbachs

Carrollton—Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kirbach, a well known Greene county couple, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday, Jan. 28. Plans have been made for the Kirbach family to attend the High Mass at St. John's church Saturday at 7 a.m. which will be followed by a breakfast at the Kirbach home with members of the immediate family and the Very Rev. Michael Enright and the Rev. E. Kowalski as guests.

Open house for their friends will be held at the Kirbach home Saturday afternoon between the hours of two and four and a reception for the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Kirbach will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall Saturday evening at 7 p.m.

Mr. Kirbach and Miss Mary Hansen were married 50 years ago in St. John's church here by the Rev. Thomas Hoven. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Sophia Hansen and the groom's brother, Martin Kirbach. Kirbach was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kirbach and Mrs. Kirbach the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hansen. Following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Kirbach made their home on a farm in Greene county later moving to the modern farm residence which they now occupy on route 67 two miles north of Carrollton.

They are the parents of seven children all of whom will be home for their fiftieth anniversary with the exception of one daughter, Mrs. Mary Evelyn Controy of Zanesville, Ohio. The other children are Matt Kirbach, Fred Kirbach, John Kirbach, Lawrence Kirbach, all of Carrollton and Mrs. Isabelle King of Eldred. There are also fifteen grandchildren.

TRAINED PROPAGANDA
Berlin — (AP) — If you ride East German trains nowadays you're liable to get a lecture on how good Communism is for the people.

This is the latest form of Communist propaganda in the Soviet zone. Communist party comrades start political discussions in trains, preferably on how living standards can be improved if the workers work harder.

Wanted: One Monkey Catcher

New Delhi — (AP) — Want an outdoor job with lots of live prospects? They need a monkey catcher here. The field hasn't been worked since 1947. A newly-hired monkey catcher, a Moslem, left India during the communal riots of that year before getting to work. Hindus won't take the job because monkeys are sacred to them.

Besides perpenetrating such annoyances as swiping golfballs right off the greens, the monkeys are occasionally vicious. Captured monkeys will be deported rather than killed. Municipal President Yudhvir Singh thinks they might bring some much-needed dollars in U. S. trade.

Temperance Union Has Program At Virginia Church

An all day regional institute of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was held Friday, Jan. 20, at the Christian Church, in Virginia, with the state president, Mrs. W. P. O'Neal of Champaign, Ill., in charge of the meeting.

Devotions were led by the pastor of the church, after the singing of the W.C.T.U. hymn. Mrs. O'Neal has just returned from Washington, D. C., where she attended the hearing held by Senator Johnson of Colorado, on liquor advertising reaching the American homes. Mrs. O'Neal stated there were forty state presidents of the W. C. T. U. present at the hearing, as well as presidents of P. T. A., Womans Clubs, and church denominational groups.

There were about one thousand present at the hearing in Washington.

At the meeting in Virginia 13 counties in Illinois including Morgan, were represented at the Institute, the first of six such meetings to be held in Illinois by Mrs. O'Neal and Mrs. H. F. Henrich, Litchfield, state recording secretary, and their staff of workers.

Mrs. F. M. Schults of the local union attended the meeting.

Fifty years ago only 348,000 people worked for the federal government. Now the figure is 2,111,000.

Bluffs, Ill.—The Kroger grocery store in the Bluffs business district was entered by burglars sometime Wednesday night or early Thursday morning about 2 in cash and a large amount of merchandise was stolen.

Ralph Sturgeon, formerly of Winchester, who has managed the Bluffs store for the past seven years, said the burglary was discovered when a driver for the Kroger Bakery company called at the store at 4:30 a.m. to deliver some bread.

The driver found a door open and called Mr. Sturgeon.

A hurried checkup by Sturgeon revealed that 100 cartons of cigarettes and between 12 and 18 pounds of bacon stolen. There may be other merchandise missing, Sturgeon said, but the exact amount will not be determined until an auditor arrives from St. Louis to make a complete check of the stock.

Sheriff Randall Killebrew of Scott county arrived from Winchester and took some fingerprints from a drawer. The sheriff said that it appeared that the thief or thieves wore gloves.

The robbery followed the same pattern of a tavern burglary in Bluffs two weeks ago, Sheriff Killebrew said.

ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. James Lashmet Jr. and Mrs. Herman Flynn of Winchester attended the luncheon meeting of the Jacksonville MacMurray society at the Dunlap hotel Saturday.

L'Anse, county seat of Baraga County, Michigan, was for years the site of a camp used by French explorers and missionaries.

Local Librarians Attend Convention

Librarians from three Jacksonville educational institutes left Thursday to attend the annual midwinter convention of the American Library association at the Edgewater Beach hotel in Chicago. The convention lasts through Sunday. The librarians are Dr. and Mrs. Decker Ritter of Illinois college, Miss Victoria Hargrave of MacMurray college, and Miss Fay Hart, head of the reference department at the public library.

End of a Chapter

THE STORY: Alice Pine has been engaged as literary secretary by Mrs. Muriel Halleck, who writes popular stories under the name of "Jo Palgrave." Alice soon learns that Mrs. Halleck does not want an ordinary stenographer, but a young woman who can write as well as take dictation. Mrs. Halleck's artist husband, who seems a little autistic and Alice is not sure she likes him. Alice has just begun work on her new job and has been reading Muriel's story plan.

IV

IT was then, perhaps, that Alice Pine understood rather clearly. Muriel Halleck had the essentials of a fine, possibly a great, writer. And despite her becoming modesty, Muriel knew it. This book was doubtless an experiment which, if successful, would bring Muriel into a new and more important literary classification. And it certainly promised to be successful. By comparison, the shining but basically shallow serials she wrote under the pen name of Jo Palgrave were trifling.

"Well," Muriel urged, "there must be some bugs. Nothing's 100 per cent."

"There is one thing," Alice said. "I couldn't quite get from the outline the—the payoff on Larry." She referred to the book's central character.

Muriel glanced at her keenly. "Amplify that, will you?" "Well, just how are you planning to leave him with the reader? I mean, what kind of a man is he, actually? It almost seemed—maybe I shouldn't say this—but as if you weren't sure yourself what to make of him."

"That's a very shrewd observation, Alice. I really don't exactly know what I'll make of Larry, in the end. Oh, I've got some nebulous ideas. But I'm hoping that something will crystallize soon."

"It's bound to," Alice said. "But, outside of that, I can't think of a thing."

Muriel turned back to her typewriter. "All right. You run along and catch some sun. I won't need you for a couple of hours."

ALICE went, thinking that she had not earned her excellent salary this morning. She headed for the garden, and saw Brent.

He was sucking a short pipe and regarding gaily-colored tulips broodingly.

She checked her pace. She did not especially want to talk to Brent. But he beckoned to her casually. "Hello, Miss Pine. Getting into the routine?"

"I've made a start, anyhow. But just now Mrs. Halleck—Muriel—hasn't anything for me."

He knocked out the pipe. "Well, enjoy your freedom while ye may. Usually Muriel goes in for mass production."

Alice looked at him. His dark face and shadowed eyes told her nothing. She had probably imagined the hint of a sneer in his tone. "I wouldn't know about that," she said. "But she's certainly producing a grand novel."

"Is she?" Brent murmured. "I hadn't heard."

"But I'd have thought..." Alice stopped.

Brent stood now between tree and gardener. His face was twisted with anger. "Who told you to do this, Sloan?"

Brent laughed. "That I'd know all about it, eh? Oh, Muriel and I don't discuss our work. Good way to keep a couple of artistic temperaments from clashing, you see."

Alice did not see. Their professions, albeit allied, were non-competitive. Why, then, should there be a question of clash?

She shrugged. It was no business of hers. But her idea of Brent Halleck as a strange, difficult man was growing. She said over a sudden indeterminate sound: "Perhaps I shouldn't have mentioned the novel. She may have wanted to surprise—"

Brent had raised a hand interrupting her. "What was that?"

Before she could reply the sound was repeated, more clearly. A solid, ringing crack, as of hard surfaces brought violently together. Brent swung around, ran toward the house and disappeared behind it. On impulse, Alice followed.

UNDER the apple tree outside of her library window was the surely individual she had seen yesterday. He held an ax, suspended in mid-air. A white gash showed in the tree's gnarled trunk.

Brent stood now between tree and gardener. His face was twisted with anger. "Who told you to do this, Sloan?"

The man lowered the ax. He met Brent's eyes levelly, even insolently. "I had my orders."

"From whom?"

"The missus."

"Well," Brent snapped, "they're canceled. I've told you never to cut down any trees without my permission."

Sloan kept his gaze stubborn. "A man can't serve two masters," he grumbled.

The disrespectful tone seemed to rob Brent of his temper.

"Listen, you!" he shouted. "Get as biblical as you like! But let the

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1¹⁵?

"IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?" you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies.

To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today... you don't have gasoline rationing today.

Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $300,000,000 a year —freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel... $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

West Berlin Deaths Down

Berlin — Births are outnumbering deaths in West Berlin for the first time since the war, says the U. S. High Commission. The Soviet sector still is recording more deaths than births however, the commission said in a survey for the third quarter of 1949.

The American, British and French sectors registered 12 births per 1,000 population and the death rate which reached 100 per 1,000 in 1945 is down now to 11 per 1,000. In the Russian sector, the survey showed, there were 371 more deaths than births in July, August and September.

Sea slugs brought $1,000 a ton at Canton, China, before the war, says the National Geographic Society.

ROCKET-SLED TESTS SIMULATE AIR CRASH—His muscles tense, an Air Force volunteer awaits the firing of rockets that will speed his sled along the test tracks at 100-miles-an-hour. The sled will be halted with a shock like that experienced in an airplane's crash landing. The rocket-sled, installed at Muroc, Cal., is designed to test the theory, among others, that air crash casualties would be greatly reduced if passengers were seated backwards. A camera is mounted on front of the carriage to record reactions of the test passenger.

Crocodile Tooth Sultan

Dunka Territory, Congo
—(P)— With songs, dances and drums, "Dekpe the First" became the sultan of 100,000 Azande tribesmen living in 30,000 square kilometers of forest in North-Eastern Congo recently. He came to the throne after vanquishing a court intrigue which arose from the fact that his father, Gilims, had 20 wives and a correspondingly abundant number of offspring, of whom 21 were males.

Though not the eldest, Dekpe became the favorite son. It was his father's dying wish that Dekpe should follow him upon the throne.
Dekpe was proclaimed Sultan and one by one the minor chiefs stepped forward to pay homage. Seizing a crocodile tooth, they lifted it high, scratched the ground with it and then bowed to the new sultan, saying: "May I die in the coming year if I do not fulfill what I now pledge by the tooth of the crocodile."

BABY HAS MENINGITIS FIVE TIMES

Philadelphia —(P)— Little Johnny Cavallieri, not yet three years old, already has won his fifth battle over meningitis. Doctors at Children's Hospital, where Johnny is convalescing, said they doubted if medical literature listed any individual who suffered as many as five attacks of this severe disease.
Meningitis is an infection affecting the central nervous system. It involves the spinal fluid in the membrane surrounding the spine and brain. Doctors say that while one attack of meningitis doesn't make a person immune from another, it is rare when a person suffers a second attack.

Mercury Vapor Lights Brighten Up East Morgan

East Morgan street from the public square to South East street, was aglow with light Wednesday night as the three new mercury vapor lights installed there were switched on for the first time.

"I could stand on the north side of the street across from the lights and read a newspaper," one enthusiastic citizen said Thursday.

The three mercury vapor lights were purchased by property owners in the block. They were installed by the city light department.

The lights, mounted on 30 foot metal poles, are similar to those in use at the square on North and South Main streets, and at the intersection of South Main street and College avenue. The lights at the latter location have just been installed and are not yet adjusted.

Other mercury vapor lights have arrived for installation on North and South Sandy streets, and West Court street, one block in each direction from the square. These, too, were purchased by the property owners.

Plans for lighting the entire business district with the new-type lights are now being prepared for submission to the council. Of course the areas already served with by mercury vapor lights will not be included in the general project.

Missionary To India Will Give Concord Address

Concord—The Rev. Halsey E. Dewey, superintendent of the Pakaur district of the Methodist church, in Bengal Province, India, and one of the best-known Methodist missionaries in that nation, will be the guest speaker at the Methodist church of Concord on Friday, February 10. Mr. Dewey came to the United States to attend the general Conference of his church in Boston, Mass.

REV. HALSEY E. DEWEY

Mr. Dewey's 28 years of evangelistic and educational missionary service have all been in the Bengal Province, chiefly in Pakaur, Suri, Asansol, and for a period during the war, in Mt. Herman School in Darjeeling. He is trained as an agriculturalist, also, and wherever he has gone as a missionary he has been active in permeating better farming, better industrial training, and in helping improve the economic lot of the underprivileged rural workers of the Indian village.

While in Asansol—the rail and coal mining center of India, he gave especial attention to agricultural, industrial, and educational work in that rich region. He was active in assisting the industrial workers in securing better working conditions and economic justice from the managers and owners of the mines—on many occasions presenting their cause direct to British and Indian officials. In both India and America, he has been an outspoken voice, portraying the conditions and poverty of industrial and agricultural exploitation in which many millions of the nation's people live.

Mr. Dewey is a native of Ruthven, Iowa, and a graduate of the Iowa State College of Agriculture, Ames, Iowa.

Miss Johnson testified Cecola was brutal to her and tried to force her into prostitution. Her lawyers contended she was temporarily insane at the time of the shooting. She re-arrested Cecola.

Announcing—1950's First and Foremost Fine Cars

The NEW Lincolns

Nothing could be finer

Nothing could be finer—inside or out—than the beautiful new 1950 Lincoln and the magnificent new 1950 Lincoln Cosmopolitan now on display in our showrooms.

Outwardly, their superb new body styling stamps them as being the most distinctive fine cars in America.

Inwardly, their rich new upholstery and appointments make them the most luxurious, too. For their brilliantly fashioned new "Salon Styled" interiors are definitely the most beautiful in the world.

And on the road, their new range of performance is unquestionably in a class by itself. In the thick of traffic, or on the wide open highway, they are a sheer joy to drive...instantly alert...powerfully responsive. Just a few minutes behind the wheel will convince you that nothing could be finer in action than the great high compression Lincoln "INVINCIBLE 8" engine combined with HYDRA-MATIC...with freedom forever from gear shift and clutch pedal!

And nothing, you will also discover, could be easier than Lincoln's new velvet-touch steering...or more comfortable than its new weather control system...or more restful than its new Fiberglas soundproofing...or more relaxing than the wonderfully soft Lincoln springing.

If you haven't yet made an appointment with us, by all means do so now. Once you drive the new 1950 Lincoln or new 1950 Lincoln Cosmopolitan, you, too, will be certain that nothing could be finer. And we promise you'll be pleasantly surprised about the prices.

GOOD YEAR "TRACTIONIZING"

WILL GIVE YOUR TIRES SUPER TRACTION!

Goodyear's amazing new machine — the "Tractionizer" — will give your present tires a "cat's claw" grip on wet, slippery roads... and do it right on your car!

Tractionizing is the BEST method known to give tires extra grip on wet, slippery or icy roads! This method uses no recapping materials mixed with sawdust or abrasives that fall out, leaving a number of tiny holes riddled through the entire thickness of the tread. Goodyear Tractionizing "tattoos" its thousands upon thousands of rough-edged holes only into the top part of your original tough tread where it does the good.

• No extra tires to buy.
• No waiting for a special recap job.

New York, Jan. 26.—(AP)—The stock market did no better than hold steady today.

A pre-noon buying flurry gave the price list a lift for a while but there was no follow-through to the demand and many gains faded away.

Trading activity stepped up now and then but turnover reached a rate of only about 1,200,000 shares for the full session.

Unplayed Cage Game Interests Many In Nation

Carbondale, Ill., Jan. 26 (AP)—A basketball game that wasn't played last night received an unusual amount of cross country interest today. Inquiries were for the score of a game between Southern Illinois University and Indiana Central college here.

One call came from as far East as Newark, N.J., and the westernmost was a telegraphed inquiry from Las Vegas, Nev.

The sudden interest in a routine basketball game puzzled sports editor Merle Jones of the Carbondale Free Press, especially, since the game was not supposed to be played until tonight.

Jones said he learned that a widely-circulated schedule issued by a Minneapolis publication erroneously showed the game for last night. Jones said it also listed on widely-circulated basketball pool cards, on which wagers are made.

Nixon Produces Another Batch Of 'Pumpkin Papers'

Washington Jan. 26 (AP)—A new batch of "pumpkin papers" was produced today by Rep. Nixon (R-Cal.) who quoted Whittaker Chambers, admitted wartime courier for a Soviet spy ring, as saying he got them from a high U. S. Treasury official.

The Californian named the late Harry Dexter White, former assistant secretary of the treasury, as the author of the notes telling about such things as pre-war operations of a U. S. navy captain assigned as a "secret liaison man" in England, and U. S. Treasury plans to bolster China's currency.

Nixon made this disclosure in a House speech in which he charged that the Alger Hiss case was but part of a far-flung subversive conspiracy in government circles which he said high officials knew about but took no action.

Hiss, former state department official, has been sentenced to five years for perjury after swearing he never gave any government secrets to Chambers.

Wight, Gumpert Sign Chisox Pacts

Chicago, Jan. 26 (AP)—The White Sox, two ace pitchers, lefty Bill Wight and righty Gumpert, have forwarded their signed 1950 playing contracts.

Wight, 33, was with the Sox in 1949 while Gumpert, 32, was with the White Sox in 1948 and 1949. Both were released by the Sox last season.

The Sox now have only five players unaccounted for—star second baseman Cass Michaels, pitcher Matt Surkont, catcher Ed Malone, first baseman Gordon Goldsberry and outfielder Herb Adams.

John Chapman and his Jacksonville high school Crimsons attempt to get back on the win track this evening, moving to Springfield where they'll tangle with the Feitshans Flyers in a Central conference cage bout.

The Jacks were upset by Waverly in the Winchester tournament last week and are fired-up for a victory to pad their already overbalanced 8-5 mark.

Chapman's athletes own a 44-40 win over the rugged Flyers from the capital city. The victory, however, was gleaned on the local David Prince slats and Feitshans expects to fare better against the locals in Springfield.

The Flyers boast a big, tough aggregation that relies on its ability to rebound to replace agility. The Crimsons will be expected to depend on a long-shooting game to add another mark in the victory column.

Kincadee invades the David Prince gymnasium Saturday night to make the weekend complete.

Coach Chapman has been doing considerable experimenting with the Crimsons starting lineup of late. However, his starting five will be drawn from the same veteran seven or eight that he has relied on most of the young season. Forwards will be Bill Williams, Harvey Myers, Jack Chapman or Dick Gotchall; at center, John Rhodes and guards will be drawn from Ike Wright, Ron Kemp or LaVerne Dillow.

Though both Jacksonville teams were dumped from the PMBC tournament in semi-final action, the annual conference meet can be judged a success by any standards. Followers from Meredosia, Mt. Sterling, Chambersburg, Perry, Chapin and Bluffs have backed their teams wholeheartedly filling the spacious I.S.D. gymnasium comfortably every night.

We have to say it, but "we told you so." The dopests who rated Meredosia sixth in the conference were definitely off in their selection and merely handed the fighting Indians a one-way ticket to the finals.

Spike Wilson's I.S.D. athletes hardly knew how to act when they lost to Meredosia last night. The defeat was only the second in 15 starts this season. The thirteen victories include a tournament championship way down in Louisiana, Mo. The Tigers will add to the 13 game mark considerably before the season is over.

Demaret In Lead With Hole-In-One In Hogan Tourney

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 26 (AP)—Jimmy Demaret shot a hole-in-one and equalled the competitive course record here today to lead the $10,000 Ben Hogan Open Golf tournament by a single stroke over Hogan and Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C.

Demaret, the transplanted Texan now playing out of Ojai, Calif., finished the first round early with a seven-under-par 64. His ace came on the "lucky" 13th when he hit No. 3 iron shot on the 200-yard hole. The ball hit 30 yards short and to the left of the cup. It edged over and dribbled in.

Fog Jimmy. It was a good start on defense of the title he won last year in a playoff with Hogan, the comeback golfer for whom this tournament is named.

Long after Demaret finished Palmer came to the 18th needing a birdie to tie. He finished one stroke behind with 65 when a 12-foot putt failed to drop.

For Hogan it was just the opposite. He sank a 30-footer on No. 18 for an eagle three and his 65. Bantam Ben proved he still was the master of the situation. He was four under par at the end of the first nine.

Hogan objected to a cameraman on the fourth green, and the tourney sponsors banned the lensmen from the Hogan threesome. The trouble developed as the cameraman lined up a picture while Hogan was readying a putt.

Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., golfer, who was tops among the pros for the 1949 tourney circuit, was two strokes behind Demaret. He and Wally Ulich of Minneapolis were tied for fourth with 66.

Jack Harnen of El Paso, Tex., and Dale Anderson of Hinsdale, Ill., each had 67. Clayton Heafner, Charlotte, N. C., Fred Hawkins of Chicago and Elsworth Vines of Chicago had 68.

Par took a beating as the warm sunny weather aided the golfers. Thirty were under regulation figures for the 6,620-yard course.

The jovial Demaret, happier than usual, posed for photographers and chatted with newsmen after his low round.

About that hole in one: "I sure waited a long time for that one," the nattily dressed Jimmy quipped. "It hit a high No. 3 iron and it just rolled in." It was his first ace in tournament play.

Troubles Of Phils President Mount

Philadelphia, Jan. 26 (AP)—The troubles of President Bob Carpenter with unsigned members of his Philadelphia Phillies continued to mount today.

Three more of the club's stars sent in unsigned contracts with a note that they were not satisfied with salaries offered for the 1950 season. The contracts were from Robin Roberts, third ranking pitcher last year; Gran Hamner, often called the best young shortstop in the National league, and Mike Gollat, rookie second baseman.

No figures were disclosed but it was believed that Gollat signed a one-year pact for an estimated $13,000, considerably less than the $35,000 Jackie Robinson signed for last Tuesday. However, it represented a raise of $3,000 for the big first baseman, who enjoyed a fine season in his first full year as a Dodger regular.

It was learned that Reese had been offered $30,000, five thousand less than Robinson's figure.

Denies TV Sets For Relief Clients

Gary, Ind., Jan. 26 (AP)—The Lake county welfare department today turned thumbs down on television sets for relief clients.

Fred Steininger, county welfare director, said the welfare board established the policy after learning of a TV set bought by a mother drawing dependent children's relief funds. He said investigation has shown other instances of the same sort.

He said relief aid will be cut off from any families that buy TV sets. "Television is definitely a luxury item," said Mrs. David P. Stanton, board president.

HART AND BROUGH MEET SATURDAY

Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 26 (AP)—Doris Hart and Louis Brough of the United States will meet Saturday for the Australian women's tennis title. They won their semi-final matches today thus making the final an all-American affair.

Miss Brough defeated Joyce Fitch, Australia, 6-4, 6-4, while Miss Hart beat Nancy Bolton, also of Australia, 6-4, 6-4.

It was eastern's 11th win in 12 starts this season, during which Katsimpalis has averaged 21 points per game.

Eastern led 39-20 at halftime. Scott Steagall topped Millikin with 28 points.

Gil Hodges Signs With Brooklyn

Brooklyn, Jan. 26 (AP)—Gil Hodges today became the second big Brooklyn name to sign a contract within three days, but the Dodgers hope to bag an even bigger catch tomorrow when ace shortstop Pee Wee Reese is expected to come to terms.

No figures were disclosed but it was believed that Hodges signed a one-year pact for an estimated $13,000, considerably less than the $35,000 Jackie Robinson signed for last Tuesday. However, it represented a raise of $3,000 for the big first baseman, who enjoyed a fine season in his first full year as a Dodger regular.

TWO STEP—Lee Oma seems to have trouble with his shy dancing partner, but outpointed Freddie Beshore to waltz away with 10-round decision in heavyweight bout at Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium.

Chicago, Jan. 26 (AP)—Jesse Owens, the greatest track athlete of the past half-century, today is a philosophical business man with three daughters, one a freshman at his alma mater, Ohio State.

The 36-year-old negro sprint sensation of the mid-thirties simply said "sounds great" when informed he won the Associated Press poll to pick the top track performer since 1900.

Owens got 201 votes from the country's sport editors and sportscasters. Second with 74 was legendary Jim Thorpe, previously voted the greatest football player of all time in the AP poll.

Finland's Paavo Nurmi, who like Owens won three Olympic championships in one swoop, was third with 31 votes.

Almost as sleek and lithe as when he shattered five world records and tied a sixth in a single afternoon and a year later dominated the 1936 Olympics at Berlin, Owens now makes it plain he can take fame or leave it alone. "My concern is my family and my respectability," he solemnly said.

There have been 14 lesson-filled years for Owens since he amazed the athletic world with his silken speed and catapulting leaps. Glory came in gobs after his memorable performance in the Big Ten meet at Ann Arbor, Mich., May 25, 1935.

On that epic track day, Owens tied the world 100-yard record at .09.4, and set new world records of .20.3 for 220 yards; .22.6 for the 220 yard low hurdles; and 26 feet, 8 inches for the broad jump. His 220 dash and 220-yard low hurdles efforts also encompassed officially recognized world marks at the 200-meter distance for both events.

In the 1936 Olympic games, Jesse won everything but a handshake from Adolf Hitler. He ran away from the world's best in the 100 and 200 meters, won the broad jump and anchored the triumphant U. S. 400 meter relay team.

Winning the Olympic 100 meter was Jesse's biggest thrill. "It was a million thrills packed into one," recalled Owens. "Ralph Metcalfe was still ahead at 70 meters and 120,000 people were roaring. Between 70 and 90 meters, Ralph and I were streaking neck-and-neck. Then I was in front at the finish. My eyes blurred as I heard the Sar-Spangled Banner played, first faintly and then loudly and then saw the American flag raised slowly for my victory."

The Big Ten field day was fine. Owens summed, "but the Olympics are the Olympics."

Citation's Road Back Is Marred By Arcadia Defeat

Arcadia, Calif., Jan. 26 (AP)—Mighty Citation's come-back campaign hit a snag today as the great triple crown king of 1948 bowed in defeat to a 15-to-one shot from Argentina.

Miche, a velvety grey from the land of the Pampas, pinned the defeat, the third in 31 trips to the post, on the Calumet Cannonball in a close, thrilling, head-to-head duel down the stretch at the tail end of a six-furlong battle.

It was Citation's second race after a 13-month layoff and he was the heavily favored idol as he went to bat in what appeared to be a mere tune-up for the bigger races to come at Santa Anita Park.

Citation was ridden by Steve Brooks.

Third in the six horse field was another rank outsider, a recent graduate of the claiming ranks in California, Huno Kid, while durable on trust, Spring Star Royal Durable and Double Jay brought up the rear.

The time on a fast track was fast for six furlongs, 1:10.4, and the victor, masterfully ridden by Jockey Gordon Glisson, paid off handsomely at $30.20, $4.80 and $3.80.

Decatur Boy And Grandfather Are In The Doghouse

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 26 (AP)—Jerry Clark and his grandfather are in the doghouse—along with 11 dogs.

Jerry, 15, found a stray dog recently on his way home from high school. There already was one dog in the Clark household and Jerry's father, Melvin, put his foot down. No more dogs.

Jerry's grandfather, William Clark, who resides nearby, came to Jerry's aid. He hid the dog at his house. But the dog didn't exactly cooperate in the secret. She gave birth to 10 pups.

There was a little too much of a thing to keep secret, Jerry's father has discovered the plot. Jerry and his grandfather are trying to find takers for the 10 pups.

Grandmother Clark isn't particularly happy about the situation, either.

"A dog is fine for a boy," she says, "but 12 are too many. They are not cheaper by the dozen."

Bradley Tromps Tulsa 64 To 45

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 26 (AP)—Bradley university booked its third Missouri Valley conference cage victory in four starts and its 16th win in 19 games of the season tonight by trouncing Tulsa 64-45.

Bradley's production was the most points scored against Tulsa, one of the nation's top defensive clubs, this season. It was Tulsa's fifth loss in the last six starts and left the Oklahomaans with a 9-5 record and a 2-2 conference mark.

Neil Ridley, high scorer of the game with 16 points, hit a corner shot and Bill Willie, becoming eligible for competition for the first time, slammed in two rebounds as Tulsa took a 6-1 lead at the outset.

Six different players then struck for Bradley as the Braves rallied to a 17-7 margin. They led 31-23 at halftime. Tulsa cut the edge to 31-26 at the start of the second section, and that was the closest Tulsa got to closing the gap.

Bill Mann topped Bradley with 15 points while center Paul Unruh was limited to 11.

Routt, ISD Eliminated In Semi-Finals, Meet For Third Tonight

Jacksonville basketball teams took it on the chin in PMBC tournament semi-final contests at I.S.D. last night when both Routt and I.S.D. were knocked into the consolation bracket by out-of-town quintets.

Favored Mt. Sterling dealt Paul Stroud's Rockets a lethal 55-46 punch in the opening tussle to move into the championship bracket despite the absence of Captain Al Robinson who sprained an ankle early in the meet. Sonny Lonergan, Routt guard, was also unable to play because of illness.

Spike Wilson's I.S.D. Tigers, rated fourth in the tournament, were K.O'd by the dark-horse Meredosia Indians 45-32 in the second semi-final encounter. Gerald Jones' Meredosia tribe was rated sixth in pre-tourney rankings and whipped the number-two Chapin entry to reach semi-final play.

The consolation bout this evening will feature two intra-city antagonists who have not met this season. Routt and I.S.D. will tangle in the 7:15 game tonight on the westward boards while Mt. Sterling and Meredosia meet for the championship at 8:45 p.m.

Paced by A. J. Spreen, who was the evening's high scorer with 20 points, Routt gave Mt. Sterling a game through four off-and-on quarters of action.

The two clubs jockeyed for position at the outset and the score changed hands three times in the first quarter before the Hornets wound up leading 17-12.

Spreen, Casler and Kaufmann offset the scoring power of Mt. Sterling's McClelland, Clark, and Huebner in some torrid second quarter action and the Rockets pulled up 18-19 at one juncture. The Hornets pushed ahead 31-25 at halftime.

A big third quarter gave Mt. Sterling a commanding 44-28 advantage going into the last inning. Spreen connected with a field goal and gift toss for Routt's points during the locals' lapse.

With his club leading 53-27 in the last period, Mt. Sterling Coach Maurice Root sent in reserves and Spreen led his Rocket quintet to a comeback that brought them up 53-46, all within the last two minutes. The Hornet regulars were shot back into the tussle and managed to stall the remaining seconds out, adding two free throws to their end of the score.

"Jake" Sellers, little Rocket guard, shot but twice in the first three quarters but treated himself to three tries in the last minute and connected twice to boost Routt hopes. Spreen hit eight out of 10 free throws.

McClelland was king bee among Hornet scorers, netting 15 points. Huebner and Clark each counted a dozen.

Meredosia Holds Tigers
"Hold that Tiger" was Meredosia's theme song last night and they not only held the I.S.D. Tiger five but swung them by the tail almost at will.

The Wilsonmen hit from the field only nine times as the underdog Indians fashioned a decisive victory which marked I.S.D.'s second defeat in 15 starts this year.

Leo Cecil, Tiger scoring ace, was bottled effectively by the Meredosia defense and registered but ten points. Carlstedt battled taller Meredosia rebounders for the ball consistently and added 12 points to the westend cause, six of them free throws.

The entire Meredosia team finished the game with four fouls each. Paul left the game with too many infractions early in the fourth quarter; Cecil, Carlstedt and Raffel had four personals apiece as the rugged contest ended.

Meredosia zoomed out front 16-10 at the start of the second section, and in the first quarter and led 26-18 at halftime. It was big Joe Newman, Indian center, who did the most damage. He scored 13 points besides doing some great work under the bank-boards. Allen, Dosh forward, added 13 points on the receiving end of a fast-break.

James Millikin U. Loses Another Of Hopkins Brothers

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 26 (AP)—James Millikin university's list of Hopkins brothers was narrowed to one today.

Ralph, 25, one of the 11 baseball playing Hopkins brothers of Mulberry Grove, received his bachelor of science degree at the school's commencement.

Last June four of his brothers earned their diplomas: His twin brother, Rex; Gerald, 23, Quentin, 29, and David, 27.

Robert, 32, still is in school but will be graduated in June. Another brother, Elford, attended Millikin for two years before the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hopkins are parents of the 11 boys who played their own baseball team and formed a few summers ago. Eight of the boys saw service in World War II.

There may be other Hopkins boys to attend Millikin. Tony and Jesse, 18 and 13 respectively, now are in high school and may choose this university.

There also are two Hopkins girls—Hope, 19, a student at Greenville College, and Linda, 10, at home.

Korea to Send Mission For Aid

Seoul, Jan. 26 (AP)—South Korea's national assembly today voted to send three members to the United States to urge continued American aid.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

"DOWN THE HOCH." This was Billy Sunday and some dry-crusinging associates in Memphis, Tenn., during prohibition days under the 18th Amendment. But it might have been Izzy Einstein and Moe Smith, prohibition's most famous raiders, or just a group of "drys" out to lick "Old John Barleycorn" wherever they found him. Prohibition lasted from 1919 until 1933, and among its memories—besides the dry crusaders and "revenuers"—are the bootlegger, the speakeasy, the big city gangster, bathtub gin and the hip-pocket flask. In its place today is government-taxed and controlled liquor, and local option. But the battle for and against nation-wide dryness still rages, with people of strong and honest convictions aligned on both sides.

Recital By Hugh Beggs Features Bach's Work

By Joachim Stenzel

The "Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue" by Bach was the central work on the program presented at Illinois College by Hugh Beggs who was welcomed back to the platform of Jones Chapel by a large and sympathetic crowd.

Bach's work is one of the most complex and difficult pieces ever written for the piano; and its many contrasting moods, ranging from the stark tragedy of certain portions of the fantasy to the stunning simplicity of the fugal theme, were in the fullest sense of the word, interpreted for us; that is, the artist made the composer's language become clear and understandable and conveyed his great message with wonderful force.

The Bach work was preceded by Mozart's Sonata in A, with the celebrated Turkish March, which Mr. Beggs played with great sparkle and spiritedness; and was followed by a group of selections by romantic composers. We were impressed most with the last of these, Schumann's "In the Night."

Mr. Beggs' last group included works by Bartok (with interesting harmonies) and three well-known selections by Chopin, all of them played with lots of spirit and drive—notably the "Winter Wind" etude and the Poissonade in A-flat.

The artist countered to the insistent demand for encores by playing in three other numbers by Chopin, conveyed his great message with

FARROWING HOUSE FEATURES 'RADIANT HEAT'

By Cecil Tendick

That long-predicted sub-zero wave may hit here any day now, but 200 Morgan county baby pigs won't care. They and their mamas will be lounging in a unique house kept at just the right temperature by "radiant heat."

It was recently completed by those well known pork producers of Alexander: Joseph A. Zeller and his two sons, Bob and Luke.

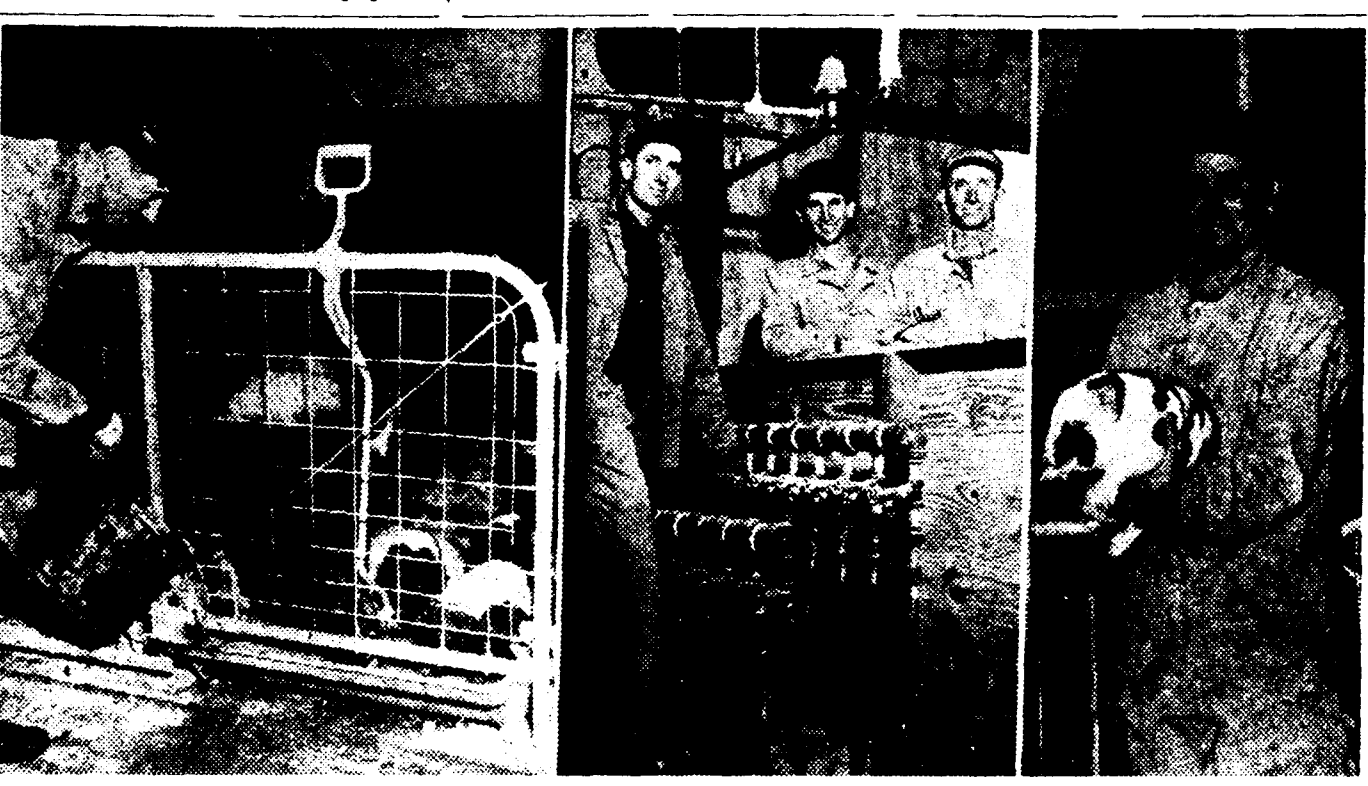

The 160 foot structure is definitely unusual; it appears to be the section of its kind built in the United States and is certainly the largest, with accommodation for 31 sows at a time.

Central farrowing houses are great labor savers, veteran herdsman admit, but they aren't too popular.

Their use necessitates stringent sanitation. Another complaint is that often sows are overheated while the pigs chill. The radiant heat principle, where the floor serves as the radiator, promises to beat this problem. The house proper can be kept cool, but the floor and bedding will be warm.

The Zellers have found that after a pig gets a week or two old, he can stand more cold than an Eskimo. Then the sow and her string of little grunts will be transferred to a type house on clean legume pasture. According to present plans 100 sows will farrow in the house each spring, about 50 each fall.

Concrete blocks make tile sides of the house. The cavities of the blocks are filled with that first rateline.

"We raised 1,000 head of hogs last year and decided there must be an easier way of doing it," Bob tells visitors to the new house located about a quarter-mile south of Alexander.

"And we've had some narrow escapes with hostile sows in A-houses. Now we've got it a lot handier—and safe."

Each of the 31 pens is equipped with a novel gate, Bob is shown watering a sow and her nine pigs. The aluminum alloy trough falls forward when the handle at the top of the gate is pushed back. It can be cleaned easily. And, best of all, safely.

The furnace is an automatic oil-burning low pressure boiler. The pigs, or 10,000, he'll still have a favorite water runs through nine copper orite. Joe has his, a perky, stubby buried in the concrete floor, born, chunky squealer who shows three lines of tubes are under each. Definitely that his papa was a of the two lines of pens 10 feet wide; spotted Poland China. His face and another three lines run under the nose, though, indicate he's got some separating hallway, which is also Berkshire blood in him.

He has eight brothers and sisters. The water comes from a well dug and is the hunkiest of the lot. The near the house. If hot temperatures moment he awakes he trots over to prevail during early fall farrowing man. If she happens to be lying on cold water may be pumped through the dinner table he squeals, roots and goes into a little impatient, off-center war dance until he gets his expensive. The owners did nearly way. Which doesn't take more than all of the work themselves, but materials and equipment cost slightly more than $6,000. The gates, for example, cost $52 each.

A photograph of a typical litter shows nine ruthless individuals and a runt who squeals unhappily about the injustices of life and the advantages of socialism.

The bedding, coarsely ground corn-cobs, is held in place by a 2-4 border. Steel pipes, six inches from the wall and 10 inches high, form the guard rails.

The concrete floor stays dry because it slopes three inches toward the hallway. The Zellers find corn-cobs make a first-rate litter. It lasts for two or three weeks and retains much of the valuable potash contained in the liquid wastes.

The Zellers buy five purebred boars each year. Last year they used Spotted Poland Chinas; next year they'll use Berkshires.

The first ten litters moved out to pasture Thursday averaged slightly over eight pigs. Two and three weeks old, they're over the critical period.

Five Children Of Family Perish In Oklahoma Blaze

Lawton, Okla., Jan. 26.—(P)—Five children in one family lost their lives in a fire today which caused little damage to the home their parents shared with another family.

Children C. D. Young, mother of the children whose ages ranged from two months to six years, told Highway Patrol Lt. Clyde Axtre they lighted her kitchen gas range and then went out into the yard for water.

Minutes later, she said, she heard her children screaming. With neighbors she rushed back to the small frame house.

A wooden latch on the kitchen door apparently fell and locked the door when one of the children slammed it after she left, Mrs. Young said.

She and the neighbors, who were unidentified, were unable to open it. The heat from the fire drove them out when they tried to enter through one of four broken windows.

Axtre said he was driving in the area when he saw smoke pouring from the dwelling.

Four of the Young children were found dead on a double bed. The infant was in its crib.

Births

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis of Bluffs at 11:28 a.m. Thursday at Passavant hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Violet of Paterson are the parents of a daughter born at 3:45 p.m. Thursday at Passavant hospital. The child weighed 8 lb. 1 oz.

Funeral Services

Miss Jane Neil

Services for Miss Jane Neil will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday at the Williamson Funeral Home with Rev. Lewis N. Raymond officiating. The body will then be removed to the Forest Home cemetery chapel in Chicago for further services at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. Burial will be made there.

State Witnesses Differ In Telling Behavior Of Girl

Bridgeport, Conn., Jan. 26.—(P)—State witnesses gave sharply clashing testimony today about how Carol Ann Paigh behaved after she shot and killed her cancer-riddled father.

Dr. Rudolph Colmers said the blonde, 21-year-old girl was collected when I talked with her and she answered perfectly sanely a few minutes after the shooting.

But Mrs. Rose Tolesco, a nurse's aide in the Stamford hospital where the shooting occurred last Sept. 23, said the college girl "looked like a moron" at the time.

A third witness described the girl as calm and quiet, as saying she fired a practice shot before killing her father.

Mrs. Tolesco said she saw Carol Ann leaning against a wall right after the shooting, with "no expression—very white, just standing there and staring."

Carol Ann's defense in her "mercy killing" trial is that she was temporarily insane from shock and grief when she fired the fatal shot into the head of her 52-year-old father.

Mother, 19 Years, Graduates From James Millikin U.

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 26.—(P)—A 19 year old mother of a 16 month old baby today became one of the youngest persons ever to be graduated by James Millikin University.

She is Mrs. June Bruce Stark. Both she and her husband, Dale, 22, are from Cissie, Ill. He won't finish his Millikin studies until June.

Dr. J. Walter Malone, Millikin president, said he didn't know how many the university has graduated at such an early age, but there haven't been many.

Mrs. Stark would have been graduated last summer but had to drop out a semester during her pregnancy.

Since the child's birth, she and her husband arranged their class schedules so that one of them could be at home at all times. They live in a trailer.

An English major, Mrs. Stark hopes eventually to get a high school teaching job. But she is too young now for a secondary school certificate. The required age is 20.

Dr. Rammelkamp Finds Rheumatic Fever Cause

The majority of rheumatic fever cases may now be prevented, due to a discovery reported last week by Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp and Dr. Charles H. Rammelkamp, Jr., who announced in the Jan. 30 issue of Time magazine. This fever follows streptococcus infection and is caused by antibodies developed by the victim about three weeks after the infection begins, they found.

Dr. Rammelkamp, who is about 38 years old, was born in Jacksonville and graduated from Illinois College. He went to the University of Chicago medical school, became resident physician at Barnes hospital, St. Louis, and later did experimental work in the early days of penicillin under Dr. Keller at Boston.

At present he is engaged in a research project for the federal government.

He was married in 1941 and is the father of two children, Charles Henry III and Colin. His home is in Cleveland, Ohio, where he is a professor at Western Reserve University's medical school. He visits Jacksonville every year.

The conclusion reached by Dr. Rammelkamp and his co-workers was that if a strep infection of the nose and throat could be cured in the three weeks before the system developed antibodies to rid itself of the poison, the fever would not occur. Using penicillin early, they proved that they were right in almost every case.

Dr. Rammelkamp surmised that 60 percent of rheumatic fever cases could now be prevented, since that amount of strep throats were severe enough to cause patients to consult a physician.

Kiwanians Donate Additional Fund To Polio Fight

The Kiwanis club donated $50 to the March of Dimes campaign, through a special collection taken among the members at its regular meeting Thursday. The Kiwanis club had manned the March of Dimes booths last Friday, but this donation was in addition to the amounts given by Kiwanians in the regular campaign.

Dr. Freda Gamber of the MacMurray College faculty was the speaker of the day. She spoke on the subject, "The Government of Western Germany," and was introduced by McKendree Blair, program chairman for the day. Dr. Gamber pointed out many dangers that have developed in Germany since the end of the war and gave her observations of conditions in Germany as she observed them on her visit to that country last summer.

It was announced that Lt. Governor Bert Morse of Virginia will make his official visit to the Jacksonville club on Feb. 2. Harold Perbis, chairman of the Pancake and Sausage Day project announced that the money had been turned in for 404 tickets to the event. It is expected that advance sales will reach 750 by next week.

Walsh, Director Of Public Safety, Resigns Position

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 26.—(P)—Donald J. Walsh of Chicago has submitted his resignation as director of the Illinois public safety department. Governor Stevenson announced today.

The governor said he "regrets" that Walsh, who has held the post since May 1, 1949, "feels obliged to resign" and return to private business.

The effective date of the resignation is to be determined later, Stevenson said.

"I am grateful to Mr. Walsh for the year of service he has given me as director of one of the most important departments in the state government," Stevenson added.

The public safety director supervises state highway police, state prisons and paroles, and crime and fire prevention activities.

Walsh replaced T. P. Sullivan of Springfield, who headed the safety department since its creation in 1941. Sullivan resigned a few months after the new democratic administration took over a year ago.

Wood River Auto Agency Destroyed In $50,000 Fire

Wood River, Ill., Jan. 26.—(P)—Fire swept through the Carter Brothers Tractor and Equipment Co. in the Wood River business district late today, causing heavy damage.

Fire Chief Wallace Bond said damage was at least $50,000 or $75,000 or possibly higher. He said a more complete survey would be necessary to determine the exact amount of the loss.

The blaze, discovered about 3:45 p.m., raged for an hour and a half before it was brought under control by firemen from five communities.

They succeeded in preventing the fire from spreading to nearby buildings, although there was some smoke and water damage to adjacent structures.

The one-story brick building covered a large area. The owners, L. T. and Don Carter, also operate an automobile (Ford) agency here.

Fire equipment was brought here from Alton, Milton, East Alton, and Roxana.

DeMolay, Rainbow Youth Lease Club Room At Roodhouse

Roodhouse—The DeMolays and Rainbows have recently leased one of the business buildings uptown, formerly occupied by Home Gas and Supply, two doors west of the confectionery, which will be redecorated and furnished as a club room and place to congregate. Such a place has been needed for many years.

Over 150 In Number

The young people, over 150 in number, will need many kinds of furnishings to make the club room comfortable and are calling for donations of furniture and money. Contributors should notify Hopkins Jewelry store, Maurice Hutton or Patsy Holmes. All funds donated and not usable for the club room will be sold and the money used for the same purposes. Among the things needed are chairs, lamps, tables, hotplate, sink, radio with FM, couches, ping pong table, piano.

Several clubs have volunteered to support the project, and a building fund was set up last fall when corn was picked up from the fields and a food sale was held.

The general public will be invited to visit the club rooms when completed, which is planned to be before the district meeting of the DeMolays in Roodhouse March 4 and 5. Members and anyone interested in the project are taking part in fixing the club room to save expenses. A juke box will also be available for dancing.

The club rooms will always be under adult supervision by the parents or responsible persons and will be run by the members who will set up their own rules and committees, guided by the sponsors of the organizations. When the club room isn't open to the young people, it can be rented for parties.

The board of directors for the club room consists of Maurice Hutton, president; Patsy Holmes, vice president; Carol Ann Davis, secretary; and Dick Hansberger, treasurer. Others serving are Donna Alred, Peggy Wolfe, Sandy Coffman, Pauline Masters, Duane Bell, Jim Seever, Darrell Mansfield, Finanze committee: Marilyn Martin, J. A. Ransom, Duane Bell and Peggy Coffman.
